Amendment 3

Ana Gomes, Enrique Guerrero Salom, Jonás Fernández

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 14

Motion for a resolution

14. Welcomes the projected increase in national defence expenditure to 2 % of EU GDP; highlights that this would mean extra expenditure of nearly EUR 100 billion on defence by the end of the coming decade; considers that this boost should be used to launch more strategic cooperative programmes within and through the Union, by better structuring the demand and supply sides and making both sides more efficient and more effective;

Amendment

14. Welcomes the projected increase in national defence expenditure to 2 % of EU GDP; highlights that this would mean extra expenditure of nearly EUR 100 billion on defence by the end of the coming decade; considers that this boost should be used to launch more strategic cooperative programmes within and through the Union, by better structuring the demand and supply sides and making both sides more efficient and more effective; supports the view that investment on R&I is dual-use and is crucial for the achievement of such goals; notes this extra expenditure should also ensure extra accountability, transparency and scrutiny on the use of European public funds, namely in national and European defence needs;

Paragraph 32 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

32 a. Underlines that the EU must step up its efforts to strengthen global governance, which will result in an improved strategic and security situation; calls on Member States to promote the reform of the UN in order to enhance its legitimacy, transparency, accountability processes and effectiveness; takes the view that the UN Security Council must be reformed, especially as regards its composition and voting procedures, in order to boost its capacity to act decisively to address global security challenges, moving beyond its purely military focus;

Amendment 7

Enrique Guerrero Salom, Jonás Fernández, Ana Gomes

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 41 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

41 a. Underlines that Article 21 of the Treaty on European Union explicitly states that the "Union's action on the international scene shall be guided by the principles which have inspired its own creation, development and enlargement, and which it seeks to advance in the wider world: democracy, the rule of law, the universality and indivisibility of human rights and fundamental freedoms, respect for human dignity, the principles of equality and solidarity, and respect for the principles of the United Nations Charter and international law";
